Presidents message:

By Dennis Watts

Greetings everybody,

In the next meeting will be breaking up our normal presentation time into two fun activities. First we will have someone from Think Art come and give us a presentation about their group. Think art is a very interesting local nonprofit group that has a lot of great activities that we should participate in.

The second portion of our presentation will be a community critique. To kick this off, members of the board will bring in a couple pieces of art for our CCAG members to critique. Our hope is that this activity grows into a regular exercise whereby we can all learn from these critiques.

Look forward to seeing you at next weeks meeting,

Dennis

Please view their website at www.thinkwonder.org. The ThinkArt program is part of this wonderful community based organization.
