Clark County Artists Guild Meeting:

Wednesday, October 15, 2014

Venue: Total Wine & More 730 S. Rampart Blvd.

Time: 6:00 pm Meet-N-Greet 6:30 Start

Presidents message:

By Dennis Watts

The Clark County artist guild has some exciting events coming up! As many of you know the County Library has offered us another show this year. It was originally planned for West Sahara library. However they recently moved us to the Summerlin Library the first week of December!

This is a fantastic opportunity. In preparation for this, I will be mounting the D rings at Wednesday night's meeting for anyone that needs it. Just bring your painting or work of art and I'll take it from there. Of course time and supplies are limited so if we have a lot of interest (boy wouldn't that be nice) I may have to do this at next months meeting as well.

SOCIAL ACTIVITY FOR WEDNESDAY'S MEETING:

The Social Activity for Wednesday's meeting is Community Collage. This will be a social meeting where everyone brings in a piece of art. So let me define what I mean by piece of art. This can be anything that you're willing to tear. It could be a page for magazine that you find interesting, a photograph or print, or an original piece of art that you've decided not to keep.

What we do is take every members piece of art and have them glue it on the board, creating a unique piece of art that we've all had a hand in (literally). This will be a lot of fun, but we need lots of pieces of art. So reach out to your fellow members and make sure they're coming and bring at least one or two pieces to glue on the board.

Once our creation is all done will have a raffle to see you gets to keep it!
